TITO has established contact with the Greek Monarcho-Fascists. While Yugoslav border troops are concentrated at the borders of the Peoples Democracies, a friendly and peaceful communication between Yugoslavs living near the border and Monarcho-Fascist troops developed at the Greek border. Two parties formed within the Tito-clique, one for Tito, the other striving for liberation from MOSCOW and Tito. This second party is said to be led by RAKOVIC who opposes Tito. The population of Yugoslavia fears a Civil War.
